MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

New Delhi, the 16th October 1958

No. 18(3)-E.Pty./57.—Whereas all property in India belonging to or held by or managed on behalf of persons and firms in Germany is vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property by order made under Rule 114 of the Defence of India Rules, as continued in force by the Trading with the Enemy (Continuance of Emergency Provisions) Act, 1947:

Now, therefore, the Central Government, in exercise of the powers conferred by paragraph 3A of the Enemy Property (Custody and Registration) Order, 1939, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf hereby directs as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Order may be called the Settlement of German Enemy Debts (Prewar Claims) Order, 1958.

2. Definitions.—In this Order—

(a) 'German enemy debt' means any sum which, on the date of this Order, is due to any of the persons specified in paragraph 5 of this Order, in respect of an obligation or a trade debt incurred before the 3rd day of September 1939 which, on that day, was an obligation or a debt of any of the following persons:

- (i) the German State;
- (ii) any individual who on that date was a German national resident in Germany;
- (iii) any body of persons (whether corporate or unincorporate) which on that date was a body incorporated or constituted in or under the laws of Germany.

(b) 'Germany' means the territory comprised in the German State on the first day of March, nineteen hundred and thirty-eight.

3. Custodian to Settle Claims.—The Custodian shall, out of the assets belonging to German persons and firms which are vested in him, settle the claims and make payments of German enemy debts which are outstanding on the date of this Order in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained.

4. Notice and Particulars of Claims.—(1) No claim shall be admitted or paid under this Order unless it is established either that a notice in respect of such claim was filed with the Custodian on or before the 25th July, 1958 or that the claim was notified to any competent authority of the Government of India on or before the said date.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in sub-paragraph (1), the Custodian may, by notice, require particulars of all debts and liabilities pertaining to any claim already filed, to be notified to him again after the date of this Order together with evidence to show that the respective claims were filed or notified in the manner and within the time specified in that sub-paragraph.

(3) The particulars and the evidence referred to in sub-paragraph (2) shall be notified to the Custodian on or before the date specified in this behalf in the notice unless the Custodian is satisfied that the creditor had sufficient cause for not notifying the claim within time.

5. Nature of Claims that may be Admitted.—Subject to the other provisions of this Order, no claim shall be admitted or paid under this Order unless it relates to:

- (a) Persons who are or are deemed to be citizens of India under the Constitution of India, if such persons were not resident or carrying on business in Germany at any time between the 3rd September 1939 and the 8th May 1945; or

- (b) other persons (not being individuals detained in an internment camp in India or restricted to a parole centre in India at any time after the 2nd September 1939), who are British subjects and who are or have since the 3rd September 1939 been resident or carrying on business in any part of the territories now constituting the Union of India; or
- (c) a body of persons which on the 3rd September 1939 was a body of persons constituted or incorporated under the law for the time being in force in what was then known as British India or an Indian State, and which is and has been carrying on business in the territories now constituting the Union of India; or
- (d) a branch carrying on business in the territories now constituting the Union of India of a body of persons which on the 3rd September 1939 was a body of persons constituted or incorporated under the law of any country which on that date was at war with Germany:

Provided that, in the case of any persons or body of persons specified in clauses (b), (c) and (d) who is carrying on business on the date of this Order both in and outside the territories of the Union of India, any sum attributable to the business carried on outside the said territories shall be excluded for the purpose of making any payment under this Order.

6. Certain Claims not to be Admitted.—This Order shall not apply to any claim in respect of a bank note expressed in a unit of German currency or any other note so expressed which is at any time legal tender in Germany.

7. Examination of Claims.—The Custodian may, by a notice in writing, determine the manner in which and the time within which the information required by him in connection with each claim, including the production of books and documents, shall be furnished.

(2) The Custodian shall then examine the claims and such evidence in respect thereof as may be furnished to him and determine, with respect to each claim, the amount which is to be allowed or disallowed, in whole or in part, for the purpose of making any payment under this Order.

8. Powers of Custodian.—The Custodian shall, for the purpose of making any payment under this Order, have power:—

- (a) to enter into compromise in respect of any debt or liability with the respective creditor or with the successor or assign of such creditor in respect of such debt or liability;
- (b) to decide all questions relating to, or arising out of, any contract in respect of a transaction to which a claim relates;
- (c) to require a discharge to be given in respect of any debt or liability for which payment is made under this Order and to take any security for the payment of any such debt or liability; and
- (d) to collect a fee equal to 2 percentum of the amount determined to be payable under this Order and to recover such fee from the amount or amounts determined to be payable under this Order.

9. Notice of Settlement of Claims.—When any claim is determined by the Custodian to have been established for the purposes of this Order and the amount for which the claim has been admitted for payment is settled, the Custodian shall serve on the claimant a written notice specifying the amount for which the claim has been admitted for payment.

10. Review by the Government.—(1) Any claimant, who is dissatisfied with the determination of the Custodian may, within twenty-one days of the date of service on him of the notice under paragraph 9, file an application for review, through the Custodian, to the Central Government.

(2) The Central Government may, on review of the application issue orders affirming or modifying or reversing the decision of the Custodian and directing payment of such amount, if any, as the Central Government may find to be due.

(3) Any order or direction issued by the Central Government under sub-paragraph (2) shall be final in respect of that claim.

11. Payment of Amount.—The amount admitted for payment by the Custodian or the amount as modified by the Government of India in review, shall be paid by the Custodian to the claimant after deducting therefrom the requisite fee of 2 percentum.
